

The Aigli Lefkada
luxury retreat

The Aigli, 1800 luxury retreat is located in the heart of the cosmopolitan town of Lefkada. You will have the opportunity to visit the historic centre of the island and its museums, to wander through the charming paved alleyways, do your shopping or enjoy a coffee in the town's central shopping area and to come into direct contact with the customs and traditions of the community of Lefkada.

Notis Katopodis has designed the interiors in a fresh modern country style. Each of the 9 suites are individually designed, varying from warm neutrals to dramatic bold colours.

The retreat has a beautiful garden with old trees where you can relax and enjoy your breakfast. The retreat provides all the facilities expected of a luxury retreat.

Each of the 9 suites are individually designed and equipped with facilities expected by today's modern traveler. These include high speed wireless internet access, safe, laptop and writing desk. Bathrooms are beautifully designed in solid marble and oak. Most rooms have views in the tree lined garden or in the old town and the spectacular skyline beyond.

After living in Athens for many years Emmanuelle and Gabriella decided to cut the Gordian knot to reach their long entertained desire.

They bought an historical aristocratic house in the island of Lefkada opposite the church of Aghios Spiridonas with the goal to restore it and convert it into a retreat. Now it's done and they expect you to discover together the Ionian secret of the Aigli well kept in Lefkada.
